

CURRICULUM VITAE

Patricia S. Graves
Central Ohio Pediatric Endocrinology and Diabetes Services
6353 Presidential Gateway
Columbus, OH 43231
(614) 839-3040

Education

- 1997 The Ohio State University College of Nursing, Post-Master's Pediatric Nurse Practitioner Program
 - 1981 The Ohio State University College of Nursing, M.S. Nursing
 - 1971 The Ohio State University College of Nursing, B.S. Nursing
-

Licensure and Certification

- Ohio RN license
 - Certified Pediatric Nurse Practitioner by the National Board of Pediatric Nurse Practitioners and Associates since 1997
 - Certified in Pediatric Nursing by the National Board of Pediatric Nurse Practitioners and Associates since 1989
 - Certificate of Authority, Ohio State Board of Nursing
-

Professional Experience

Central Ohio Pediatric Endocrinology and Diabetes Services (COPEDS)

3/00 to Present Position: Certified Pediatric Nurse Practitioner Endocrinology

Children's Hospital, Columbus, OH

10/97 to 3/00 Position: Certified Pediatric Nurse Practitioner Endocrinology

9/89 to 10/97 Position: Clinical Nurse Specialist – Endocrinology
Responsibilities: Coordinating and providing specialized outpatient care to patients with endocrine disorders (diabetes, growth problems, thyroid disorders)

9/86 to 9/89 Position: PAA nurse

Professional Experience (continued)

Responsibilities: Conducting diagnostic testing for endocrinology, gastroenterology, and nephrology patients and administering various IV infusions.

7/83 to 4/89 Position: Clinical Nurse Specialist – Pharmacology/Toxicology
Responsibilities: Providing specialized care to patients with hypertension and chemical exposures, planning and implementation of patient and staff educational programs, and coordination and participation in various research studies.

Otterbein College School of Nursing, Westerville, OH

9/83 to 6/87 Position: Clinical Instructor
Responsibilities: Provide clinical instruction and supervision for A.S.N. students in Pediatric Nursing and Nursing of Groups of Patients.

Children's Hospital, Columbus, OH

4/80 to 7/83 Position: Staff Development Coordinator
Responsibilities: Planning and development of educational programs for the surgical nursing units and the Nursing Division. Chairman for Nursing Procedure Committee

Medical Personnel Pool, Columbus, OH

2/80 to 12/90 Position: Staff Nurse
Responsibilities: Delivering specialized home care to pediatric patients.

Children's Hospital, Columbus, OH

4/77 to 12/79 Position: Clinical Nursing Director
Responsibilities: Clinical and administrative responsibilities for Neurosurgery, Burn Unit, and PICU

Professional Experience (continued)

- 8/73 to 4/77 Position: Head Nurse, Burn Unit
Responsibilities: Clinical, administrative, and research activities for a 14-bed burn unit.
- 3/71 to 9/73 Position: Staff Nurse, Burn Unit Responsibilities: Providing total nursing care of critically and acutely burned children and their families.
Charge nurse responsibilities.
-

Professional Organizations

- Pediatric Endocrinology Nursing Society; Chairperson, Long-range Planning Committee
 - Pediatric Nurse Associates and Practitioners Association
 - Ohio Nurses Association
-

Honors and Awards

- Sigma Theta Tau, 1971
 - Research Development Award, September, 1981; Center for Nursing Research, Ohio State University, Columbus, OH
 - From the Heart Award, July, 1994; Children's Hospital, Columbus, OH.
-

Research

- 12/81 The Impact of a Child with a Disfigurement from a Burn on the Sibling, Master's Thesis, The Ohio State University, College of Nursing, Columbus, OH.
- 7/82 A Comparative Study on the Differential Effects of Data Collection Between Two Physical Assessment Tools Used by Registered Nurses, Children's Hospital, Columbus, OH.
- 6/82 The Effect of Hospitalized School-Age Children's Diagnosis on Their Perceptions of Internal Body Parts, Children's Hospital, Columbus, OH.

Research (continued)

- 6/87 Fundoscopic Photography in Predicting Hypertensive Risk, Children's Hospital Columbus, OH.
- 6/88 Patient-Controlled vs. Conventional Analgesia for Post-surgical Pain Relief in Adolescents, Children's Hospital, Columbus, OH.
- 6/95 Standardization of Pediatric Height Measurement, Funded by Genetech Foundation of Growth and Development.
-

Publications

- Phillips, P., Pickrell, E, and Morse, T. (1974). Intentional Burning: A Severe Form of Child Abuse. Journal of the American College of Emergency Physicians.
- Talabere, L. and Graves, P. (1976). A Tool For Assessing Families of Burned Children. American Journal of Nursing.
- Graves, P., Walson, P., Rainey, L., and Pinyerd, B. (1984). Nursing Evaluation of Pediatric Blood Pressure Measurement. Quality Review Bulletin, 10 (7), 221-225.
- Walson, P., Graves, P., Rath, A., Kilbourne, K, and Deitch, M (1984). Effect of Guanabenz in Adolescent Hypertension. Journal of Cardiovascular Pharmacology, 6 (Suppl. 5), S814-S817.
- Morvai, A., Walson, P., and Graves, P. (1987). Local Effects of Mydriatic Drops in Hypertensive Adolescents. Children's Hospital Research Forum.
- Walson, P., Lenhert, E., and Graves, P. (1987). Accurate Blood Pressure Measurement Letter to the Editor, Postgraduate Medicine 82 (6), 32-37.
- Graves P., (1989). Blood Pressure Measurement in Children. Practice Line, Blood Pressure Lines . National Newsletter for Nurses Working in Hypertension 2 (1).
- Walson, P., Graves, P., Mortensen, M., Kern, R., and Torch, M. (1993). Patient-Controlled vs. Conventional Analgesia for Post Surgical Relief in Adolescents. Developmental Pharmacology and Therapeutics.

Publications (continued)

Graves, P. (1998). Patients with Prader Willi Syndrome: A Case Management Challenge. Heartbeat.

Graves, P and Wayne, W. (2000). Getting Pumped: Insulin Pump Therapy. Heartbeat.